Duties

The club duty rota organises the members required to run the water and family activities throughout the season. All sailing, family, student members over the age of 18 year must each fulfil two duties in a season. The duty rota can be found on the dutyman website. It is the member's responsibility to arrange a swap and to advise the sailing secretary of any changes to duty. The club holds training sessions each year to enable inexperienced sailors to carry out duties

Communication

Most communications with members will be done via email, our website or our Facebook page. While electronic communications are the club's preferred mode of communication. If you prefer traditional postage please tick the box below.
